

Tara Michener Industries, LLC

TMI, LLC provides the best in solution oriented consulting.

Our core mission is to assist others in their own personal & professional success through services, books, events & more. Our business plan is to make you shine!

Our Core Subsidiaries include:

The Who I Am series: books & accessories for children that promote self-esteem, diversity and literacy.

Diversity Consulting, speaking & training ideal for schools, corporations & groups. Programs can be customized to include council building, inclusion planning, events, etc.

Brand Consulting assisting companies & individuals with brand campaigns using traditional and social media platforms, workshops, power calls, brand by demand, etc.

Author Visits includes self-esteem shops, book clubs, confidence building for all ages, readings & more.

Business Consulting and Entrepreneurial Liaison providing entrepreneurs and potential business owners with the necessary elements of entrepreneurship to maximize success.

I Love Networking In Michigan group that promotes healthy interactions of professionals in Michigan to obtain great connections and synergies. Join us on Facebook! Events, conferences, tweet-ups and more are also a core element of this group.

Black Women In Business Brainstorm group committed to helping African American women in business promote, connect and enhance their professional lives despite disparities that infringe on the progress of minorities. This group offers speaking opportunities, networking and training that is a surefire way to success and professional development

Be A Part of Their Story Literacy Project This is our charitable arm that services non-profits with books, reading aides, speaking engagements for the underserved and more. Ask how you can be a part of this collaboration today!

To learn more about Tara Michener Industries, LLC visit us on the web at www.taramichener.com or call 734-968-4458 for a consultation. Follow us on Twitter @Taramichener